

SPAWAR Contract

Vision Robotics Federal Systems, LLC announces that it has signed a contract with The Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center, San Diego. The project comes in response to a Broad Agency Announcement issued in April, 2007, and is planned for three years. The company proposed leveraging its extensive experience with stereo vision hardware and algorithms to develop a Stereo Vision Mapping System that can be deployed on existing and forthcoming military EOD UGVs.